

FROM A TO Z: THE HEALTHY DATA ECOSYSTEM ALPHABET.

A
All data sources from everywhere for everything.

B
Better data must be extracted, transformed and loaded.

C
Curate the information and make it accessible and interactive.

D
Decentralize the preparation, presentation and participation.

E
Enable and encourage discovery. EXASOL for big data.

F
Fluid processes for finding what's needed for flexible data flows.

G
Govern access without bureaucracy.

H
Harvest information from raw data to curated information.

I
Inquire, Investigate, integrate and inform.

J
Justify investments with a small proof of concept.

K
Keep it safe and accessible.

L
Let them play.

M
Make them accountable.

N
Never make it difficult. Nodes are for Neo4j.

O
Open to new materials, tools, methods and machinery.

P
Prepare your people, process and systems.

Q
Quick answers to questions.

R
Repeatable, reliable and rapid methods.

S
Speedy responses and documented sources.

T
Telling verified stories that people remember and trust.

U
User groups encourage über competence.

V
Variety, velocity, volume, verification and visualization.

W
Who, what, where, when and how.

X
eXtra effort for exceptional opportunities and needs.

Y
Your people deliver relevant, timely and accurate information.

Z
Zealots (data zealots) should be encouraged.